I AM A FLORA MACDONALD GIRL

Remembering that "The King's daughter is all beautiful within"—

I shall strive to be beautiful in personal charm—to be courteous at all times; to be gracious in manner and gentle in demeanor; to show proper deference to those who merit it and to express a generous and unselfish spirit toward all people and toward all obligations and responsibilities.

I shall strive to be beautiful in chaste speech; to be pure in word, thought, and deed.

I shall strive to be beautiful in kindly ministrations; to be loving and thoughtful, helpful and sympathetic, in all my associations.

I shall strive to possess a joyous, singing heart that will help provide the cheer, the courage, the stamina, and the inspiration needed today.

I shall strive to manifest the highest integrity in the dispatch of all my academic work—to follow honestly and sincerely those principles of the honor system applicable to the different phases of class activity, and to accept the interpretation of the principles as set forth by those in authority.

I shall strive to uphold honestly and wholeheartedly the rules and regulations that have been decided upon by the college officials and by the student body.

I shall strive to act well my part—to do not only the big things of my daily occupations thoroughly and efficiently, but to be equally faithful in attention to the less important matters, however lowly they may seem.

I shall strive to cultivate the beauty of a noble soul—to take pride in the ideals of Christian service and to incorporate them in my living.

All these things I will earnestly seek to do in accordance with the principles of the honor system and in consonance with the College Motto—

“Disciplina Feminarum Christo”

GREETINGS!

So you are coming to college. This is a splendid thing to do. Many young people are longing to take advantage of this opportunity to fit themselves for life and not able to do so.

The world today needs well prepared people. This is especially true of women. F. M. C. has been notably successful in preparing women for good and effective citizenship. She is offering this opportunity to you. Be certain to take advantage of it.

We are a happy and helpful "bunch" and are glad you are to be with us. I know we shall enjoy each other and that you will be one of the happy and helpful ones.

Be certain to look me up. I may be able to help you.

Yours for a great year,
DR. C. G. VARDELL
President Emeritus

Greetings!

I believe in Flora Macdonald College because I believe in its students. There is no finer group of young people anywhere than those who compose our student body year after year. In my mind no greater privilege can come to a young woman than that of being a student in this unique college.

As I welcome you to a new year, I do so with a fervent prayer that God may richly bless each of you.

The door of my office is always open to you, the students, and I am never too busy to see you and talk with you.

It is an honor and a joy to serve you.

Cordially yours,

MARSHALL SCOTT WOODSON
President

A Personal Letter from the Dean of the College

Flora Macdonald welcomes you not only as a student but as a person. Members of the Faculty give a great deal of individual attention to each girl who enrolls in the College. You will take your place in certain classes of instruction, but beyond that, and far more important, you will be a member of a fellowship. There will always be those who are genuinely interested in your personal problems and pulling for your complete success. Give your lives wholeheartedly to your work and your play on this campus, and you will be richly rewarded with enduring satisfactions. My best wishes to you as you begin your education at Flora Macdonald College.

Faithfully yours,

PRICE H. GWYNN, JR.

To each of you who is coming to Flora Macdonald College for the first time I extend a cordial welcome. The college lives in its students and in its alumnae, so you are soon to become a fundamental and integral part of it. What you will be, it will be.

From your letters I believe that you will strive to maintain the traditions of the college and to hold high its ideals and standards, and that you will endeavor in every way to leave it "not less but greater, better and more beautiful" than when it was transmitted to you.

HAZEL MORRISON

Prayer Bands

Shirley Fitzgerald .....Chairman

“A prayer in its simplest definition is merely a word turned God-ward.”—Phillips Brooks.

One of the greatest joys at Flora Macdonald is to get to know one another in the light of fellowship and prayer. Once a week groups meet together for a period of meditation and prayer. Each member of the student body belongs to a group. The treasured opportunity of a Prayer Band Leader is to help each member of her small group realize the privilege that is hers.

The following girls will lead Prayer Bands this year:

Mary McLean	Sally Ann Munroe
Doris Tucker	Fay Buck
Christine Maloney	Lillian McInnis
Kitty Oliver	Dot Hamilton
Marie Sellars	Marjorie Davis
Gladys McCain	Nickey Ellis
Harriet McAuley	Ann McGirt
Mickey Ozlin	Doris Dunn
Shirley Willis	Ailene Powers
Shirley Thornton	Mary McCracken
Anita Williamson	Mary Archie Brown

The Monday morning chapel programs are conducted by these Prayer Band leaders and the members of their groups.

Quiet Hour

“Satisfy us in the morning with Thy steadfast love,
that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.”

A few minutes spent in quiet with God each morning sets the tone for the rest of the day. Because this need has been recognized at Flora Macdonald, there has been provided in your schedule each morning a period of fifteen minutes called the Quiet Hour, which can be your fellowship period with God. The longer you stay in college the more interest you will have and the more complex your life will become. You will find that this period of meditation will give you the strength needed to accomplish your tasks.

Hymn Sing

Our Sabbath worship is made even more meaningful each Sunday night as we gather around the Rotunda for our Sunday night Hymn Sing. For those who sing or those who listen this time holds a significant place in our day of rest and worship. One of the often used hymns at the sing is our theme hymn, "Thou Hidden Source of Calm Repose."

Meditation

Immediately following Hymn Sing, the auditorium is set aside as a place of meditation. Here, inspired by a worship center and the softly played hymns, we can be alone with God and ask His continued guidance in our lives through the coming week.

Vespers

On Thursday evening, we come together for Vespers. It is a short period of prayer, hymns, and meditation. We are renewed in body and mind, as we pause before our study begins to unite again in worshipping our Creator.

Membership in the F.M.C.A.

"Acknowledging Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, as Lord and Saviour of your life, you want to co-operate with others who have yielded their lives to Him."

The F.M.C.A. brings you into a closer fellowship with the other students and the faculty, who are associate members, and will present to you the deeper, truer meaning of Christianity. It will afford you good training for a life of service to the Master.

Striving to realize the best in college life, it develops you into a good citizen of the college. It cannot be a success without the co-operation of all Christian girls. It wants and needs you, and you need it.

Churches

The pastor and congregation of the Presbyterian, Methodist, Baptist, and Episcopal Churches extend to each girl a cordial welcome. Each Church has a full program of worship and activities in which the college girls are urged to participate.

FLORA MACDONALD SONGS

Alma Mater

Far away from noisy tumult
And the city's throng
Stands our cherished Alma Mater
Worthy of our song.

Chorus—

Now we lift our joyous chorus
Full of love to Thee,
Hail to thee, O Alma Mater!
Hail, O, F. M. C.

On her wide and spacious campus
Springs of Crystal rise,
Which for joy and health and beauty
She shall ever prize.

Stately pine trees waving o'er her,
Proud her guards to be,
Whisper faith and hope and courage,
Faithful listens she.

College Friendship Song

Our college friendship is the finest,
Worth any price that you can pay,
May bonds of friendship ne'er be broken
As through this world we wend our way.
But yet! whatever be life's fortune
In God our trust shall ever be.
These good old days won't be forgotten,
And the girls of F. M. C.

Blessings

For health and strength and daily food,
We give Thee thanks, O Lord.

Evening is here,
The board is spread;
Thanks be to God
Who gives us bread.

SUGGESTIONS

Read the College Catalogue carefully, bring it to the college with you, and keep it for reference.

Be sure to have your name plainly written on your baggage.

Look out for the girls in white dresses, who will meet you at the bus station or at the college.

The first thing to do on arriving at the college is to go to the Dean of Students to register your arrival and get the number of your room. (Students are asked not to come on Sunday unless absolutely necessary.)

Take any seat in the dining hall the first few days.

If possible, bring towel, sheet, and pillow case in your suitcase, as your trunk may not arrive when you do.

Your closet will require a curtain of burlap or cretonne the width of a door and two and one-half yards long.

Sash curtains for the windows should be one yard long and full length curtains two and one-fourth yards long. There is one pillow for each bed, which is 19 x 27 inches.

Bring dresser scarfs, table covers, curtains, desk lamp, bed lamp, and a rug or so, as they will make your room more pleasant and they are not furnished by the college.

All laundry is done by the college laundry on the campus. A student may put as many pieces as is necessary in the laundry, but she must keep them down to a reasonable number. (See Catalogue.)

It would be wise to include in your wardrobe a white dress, because there are many occasions when one is needed.

Each girl is assigned a laundry number a few days after her arrival. Do not write for laundry numbers during the summer, as it is impossible to supply them.

There are available electric irons (for pressing) on Vardell second, Morgan second, Fleming, and Vardell third.

Your mail will reach you if sent in care of F. M. C., Red Springs, N. C.
